It has been an extremely busy week in school. We have celebrated in style with Christmas jumper day, Christmas dinner, Christmas parties, Christmas Carols, our Fair, lantern parade, panto and Andy joined us today for his Christmas sing song. It's exhausting but we've had great fun!

Christmas dinner and jumper day

The children looked stunning in their Christmas jumpers, singing along and eating the beautiful Christmas dinner cooked for us by Katie, Sarah and Jill. Thank you for your kind donations, we raised £103.50 for Save the Children appeal.

Fabulous school fair and carol concert

First may we thank everyone who helped in any way in making the fair such a lovely experience. The whole event was launched by the Year 3, 4 and 5 carol concert. The children impressed the whole audience with their singing, poetry recitals, British Sign Language and Jingle Bells sung in French. Overall, the fair raised £960. Absolutely fantastic!

Lantern Parade

The designs from our lantern parade were worthy of any shop purchase. Thank you to all the adults in school who worked hard to make them with the children this year.
