

16th September 2022

Dear parents and carers,

Once again we have enjoyed a lovely week in school with the children. Each class is settling into their new routine and starting to enjoy the after school and lunchtime clubs on offer to them. Congratulations to our Reception children who have just completed their first full week at school.

Can I remind you that school will remain closed on Monday 19th September 2022 for Queen Elizabeth II funeral service.

Home-school agreements

Paper copies of your child's Home School Agreement have been sent home today. They contain a photo of their Class Charter for you to see. The amazing charters are displayed in each classroom and have been shared with the whole school in assembly today. Please read the Home School Agreement with your child, sign and return to school. If duplicate copies are needed, they can be found on your child's Class Page of the school website.

Safeguarding Procedures

Parents/carers are requested to ensure their child is collected on time at the end of the school day. Please contact school if for any reason you are going to be late. If you are not collecting your child, please notify school in advance by email, phone call or a message to the class teacher via the member of staff on the morning gate. Our priority remains the children's safety at all times and therefore we cannot allow your child to go home with another adult without your permission. Thank you for your support.

A fond farewell

We say a fond farewell to Mrs O'Dell who has been a MDA with us for many years and will be leaving us for new adventures from next week.

In light of this news, we now have a full time Midday Assistant vacancy available. Please email the school office if you are interested in this position or if you have some free time and would like to come in occasionally on a voluntary basis to help over lunchtimes.

Have a lovely weekend

Julie Cox
